This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a fair and accurate description of how they have benefited the community, or section of the community, which the company is intended to serve.

Buxton Town Team CIC was set up to advance the prosperity of Buxton and the well-being of its community. The company achieves this through projects which provide benefits to both existing and new businesses, to local residents and to the town's visitors. In addition the company aim to collaborate with other organisation holding similar objectives.

Projects completed in the period include:

" Two Christmas Shopping Crawls (December 2012 and December 2013). The aims were to increase footfall to 30 participating independent shops in the 6 weeks leading up to Christmas, and to encourage local residents to discover shops, and areas of the town, that they might not have visited before. These aims were achieved, and all of the participating businesses were keen to take part again in subsequent years.

" The Buxton Spring Fair in May 2013 The primary aim was for Buxton residents to re-discover their own town, by show-casing everything that it has to offer. We filled the 'Main Street' with stalls, music, activities and entertainment for a day, involving 140 participating (Please see continuation sheet)

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS . Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are; how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.

The directors endeavour to ensure that all their decisions are fully informed by the views of the company's intended beneficiaries. They achieved this as follows:

Two major consultation events were held during the period:

11th June 2013 'One Year On'. This was an open meeting attended by around 40 people. It was held with the aim of consulting with the wider community, one year on from the original open meetings in 2012, at which the structure and aims of the company were agreed.

Attendees were given the opportunity to comment on the business plan being prepared by the directors, to comment on the achievements to date and to suggest new projects and ideas that the company might adopt.

10th December 2013 General Meeting, for all members of the company and other interested persons. The membership at the time numbered 107, of whom 48 attended, with 3 observers. (Please see continuation sheet)
